

THE RAIN FALLS WHERE IT WILL

New Director's cut

Directed by Majid Barzegar

Written by Majid Barzegar, Arman Khansarian

Starring Nazanin Ahmadi, Alireza Sani Far, Mazdak Mirabedini

Producers Majid Barzegar, Amir Endalah

Production Companies Rainy Pictures, The Other End Inc.

Original Title: Abr Baranash Gerefteh | 87' | Aspect ratio: 2.39 | Farsi OV | Iran, Canada 2021

SHORT SYNOPSIS

Sara works as an experienced and respected nurse in one of the busiest hospitals in Tehran where she quietly takes away the lives of her patients who have lost all hope in recovery. All seems to go well for her, until she is asked to take care of a private patient in his villa by the sea.

DIRECTOR'S BIOGRAPHY

Majid Barzegar

Majid Barzegar is a leading figure of Iranian arthouse cinema who has works as a writer, producer, and director. Throughout his career, he has received countless nominations, awards, and been selected for competition at Berlinale, Rotterdam, San Sebastian, among many others.

CAST BIOGRAPHY

Nazanin Ahmadi

Nazanin Ahmadi is an Iranian actress and, besides having acted in short films, is known for her starring role in the drama Disappearance.

Alireza Sani Far

Alireza is an Iranian actor who has been in many films over the last 10 years. He also writes for TV:

Mazdak Mirabedini

Mazdak is an Iranian multitalent who, besides having acted in several films, directed, wrote and starred in his own theatrical drama Footwork.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

Suicide is often perceived as cowardly or selfish. But those who choose to finish their lives with a dignified ending are worthy of respect for their courage and self-sacrifice. In recent years, medical ethics have posed meaningful questions about patients lacking symptoms of life. By keeping them alive, are we prolonging life or death?

GENRE

Drama